Comments:

I completely support the Columbia River Crossing. I think that lightrail going to Washington will open doors for a lot of people. It would only make sense to have Tri-Met branch up to the Couv (Vancouver). Tons of people live in Vancouver and work in Portland and vice versa. ~~Tri~~ Tri-met is the most environmentally friendly way to travel/get around. The more people see good change the ~~more~~ more people do good change. I can't wait to ride!
