Comments:

I am extremely concerned about the toll proposition for the bridges. My husband works in Portland and we already pay a huge amount of tax to Oregon for the privilege of working there. Additionally, I regularly travel there as I have family, medical providers, and entertainment venues that I use. I feel that there should be other options to tolling. If a toll is the only way then tax credits should be given to help offset the cost as well as a definitive time to end the toll.
