December 29, 2011

To Whom it May Concern:

On December 7, 2011, the Federal Highway Administration and Federal Transit Administration signed a record of decision for the Columbia River Crossing project. The signed document finalizes the environmental review process, formally identifies the federal agencies' selected alternative for the CRC (a replacement Interstate 5 bridge with light rail) and allows final design and construction planning to proceed.

Attached please find the Notice of Availability for the Columbia River Crossing project record of decision. The notice is published to inform interested parties that the record of decision has been signed and how to access it. You are receiving this email because you commented on the CRC Final Environmental Impact Statement.

As the project moves forward, CRC will continue to engage the community and local agencies in refining project designs and planning for construction. If you have any questions or would like more information, please contact the CRC project office at 866-396-2726.

Sincerely,
Heather Wills
CRC Environmental Manager

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY
INTERSTATE 5 COLUMBIA RIVER CROSSING RECORD OF DECISION

Purpose of Notice

This notice is published to notify interested citizens and others that the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) and Federal Transit Administration (FTA) have signed a Record of Decision (ROD) on December 7, 2011, for the Interstate 5 (I-5) Columbia River Crossing (CRC) project in Multnomah County, Oregon and Clark County, Washington. The Record of Decision is available to the community in accordance with and pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act (42 USC 4321-4347). It is also in accordance with the Washington State Environmental Policy Act (RCW 43.21c), State Environmental Policy Act Rules (WAC 197-11) and the Washington Transportation Commission and Department Environmental Policy Act Rules (WAC 468-12).

Description of the Proposed Project

The CRC project is a multimodal project focused on improving safety, reducing congestion and increasing mobility of motorists, freight traffic, transit riders, bicyclists, and pedestrians along 5 miles of I-5 between Vancouver, Washington, and Portland, Oregon. The transit component of the CRC selected alternative (SA) will extend light rail from the existing Metropolitan Area Express Yellow Line northern terminus at the Expo Center, across Hayden Island and the Columbia River, and through downtown Vancouver to a terminus at Clark College. The highway improvements of the SA will extend from State Route 500 in northern Vancouver, south through downtown Vancouver, and over the I-5 bridge crossing the Columbia River to just north of Columbia Boulevard in north Portland. Project improvements include a new crossing over the Columbia River, I-5 interchange improvements and related enhancements to the local street and bicycle and pedestrian network.

Document Availability

The ROD can be accessed on-line at www.columbiarivercrossing.org. To request a printed copy of the ROD, contact the CRC office at feedback@columbiarivercrossing.org or call 866-396-2726. The ROD is also available for review at local libraries in Vancouver, Washington and Portland, Oregon. A list of locations to view the FEIS is available on the CRC project website.

Additional Information

For additional information, please contact:

Heather Wills, CRC Environmental Manager, 700 Washington Street, Suite 300, Vancouver, WA 98660 or via email at feedback@columbiarivercrossing.org. For general project information, please consult the project website at www.columbiarivercrossing.org.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Information

Materials can be provided in alternative formats: large print, Braille, cassette tape, or on computer disk for people with disabilities by calling the CRC project office at (866) 396-2726.
