Comment:

The effect of the Pacific interchange option on the Arboretum is close to catastrophic. The Arboretum is a local and national treasure that cannot be replaced; it is a legacy that our children and future generations deserve to enjoy.

All of the alternatives have a negative effect on the Arboretum, though the Pacific interchange would have the most.

I believe, as a taxpayer and a resident of Seattle, that we deserve to have a tunnel option explored in the same manner and detail as the alternatives that are currently on the table.
