As a frequent user of Foster Island + the connecting waterfront trail, as well as a rower in Portage Bay + Union Bay, I would favor the plan which is the least intrusive both visually + for noise. <sup>However,</sup> I am equally concerned that the bridge should accommodate public transit, including light rail at some time in the future. Though the 4-lane alternative is the least intrusive, it seems to me that the 6-lane alternative is best because of its HOV/transit capabilities. I would oppose the alternative with the bridge over Union Bay, as being far too intrusive; visually + noise wise to the boaters on Union Bay and to park users on <sup>thousands of</sup> Foster Island. <sub>continued on back</sub>
