

From: BarbaraPJames@comcast.net [mailto:BarbaraPJames@comcast.net]
Sent: Monday, November 15, 2010 7:06 PM
To: AWW SDEIS Comments
Subject: Seismic Activity

I-077-001 | If an above ground viaduct cannot safely withstand seismic activity, how safe can a below earth surface tunnel be in an earthquake? This is nightmarish!

Barbara James

I-077-001

Final design of the proposed action will take into account earthquake-related issues based on applicable seismic design codes and reasonably expected events that could occur during the life of the project.